Public Service Heads Tell How Electricity Will be Sold People

Schedules Reveal Rates Comparable With Those of Other Towns; Rules Prescribe Methods of Contract, Wiring and Rights of Both Consumer and Borough.

Rules for the sale and use of electric current together with a schedule of prices, prepared by Borough Manager Backus and formally adopted by council Monday night, were made public Wednesday. The rules prescribe methods of contract, of wiring, sizes of wire used for the various services, etc.; outline methods of extensions, repairs and replacements together with payments of bills; in fact everything needful as between customer and borough is set forth in comprehensive style. The schedule of rates embraces residence lighting and cooking, semi-manufacturing and basis manufacturing, and examination of the schedules reveals that Smethport is given rates, which, from the standpoint of economy, will compare favorably with those of any city in the state. The rate schedule follows:

Schedule A—Residences.

First 25 kw	12c
Second 25 kw	11c
Next 50 kw	10c
All over 100 kw	09c

One cent per kw discount for payment on or before 10th of month.
Minimum charge, $1.50.

Schedule B.

Electric cooking ranges, for residences and bakeries 4c per kw. One cent discount per kw for payment on or before the 10th of month. Minimum charge $3.

Schedule C. Semi-Manufacturing.

Laundries, garages, printing offices, picture shows, small work shops, etc.

First 25 k w	08c
Second 25 k w	07c
All over 50 k w	06c

One cent per k w discount for payment on or before the 10th of month. Not to exceed 20 per cent. A connected load may be used for lighting purposes. Minimun charge $2.50.

Schedule D. Basic Manufacturing.

Factories which manufacture from the raw material complete articles for world trade will be furnished with electricity at actual net cost to borough plus 10 per cent. No discount, terms net. Payable on or before 10th of month. Not to exceed 20 per cent of connected load may be used for lighting purposes. Minimun charge 25c for each connected h. p.

Rules Effective September 15.

All customers are required to execute a formal written contract in accordance with the rules of the borough. Contracts are not transferable. New occupants of buildings must make application at the borough's office before using current, otherwise they will be charged with current used and not paid for, as shown by last reading of meter.

The consumer's wiring must be brought outside the building wall nearest the borough's service wires so as to be readily accessible thereto, and in such manner that all wiring furnished by the borough will be in plain view from the street or alley. Inside wiring must extend at least 18 inches beyond the buildings for the borough to attach its wires thereto. All connections between service entrance and meter board must be in iron conduit, not less than 3-4 in. Service wires from entrance to meters to be not less than No. 8 B and S. gauge. Consumers desiring an underground service from over-head wires may, at their expense, run service wires from meter board in building to pole from which connection is to be made, including the necessary run of conduit and wire, up the side of the pole.

The Borough will own, furnish and maintain the necessary metering devices. Borough will furnish all wire and material from its lines over the customer's property and properly connect up the service for which the customer will pay a service charge of $2.

All installations, extensions, and repairs to the customer's property shall be made by the customer, who shall maintain the equipment in a condition required by the board of fire underwriters.

Monthly bills must be paid at the borough office by the 10th of the month succeeding the month for which the bills were issued, in order to secure the discount. Bills not paid by the 15th of the month become delinquent and the service may be shut off without further notice, until all bills are paid. Remittance by mail bearing postmark of the 10th will be received as payment of that date.

The customer must give notice to the Borough before increasing the existing installation of light or power equipment.

The customer shall notify the borough promptly of any interruption or failure in the current supply.

No other current other than that covered by the contract with the borough shall be used by the customer upon the premises, nor shall the current supply by the borough be resold or sublet to others or used for any other purpose than as provided in the contract nor on any other premises than those mentioned therein.

The borough shall have the right at any time to discontinue its service and to remove its property from the premises in case the customer fails to comply with any of the conditions of these rules.

The borough shall require customers whose personal credit is not established and who are not property owners of the premises where current is to be supplied, to make a deposit not exceeding double the estimated maximum monthly bills, to insure payment for current used and may apply such deposit in payment thereof.

ALLEGED BOOZE MAKER ARRESTED BY SHERIFF, MAKES HIS GET-AWAY.

Ralph Evans of West Washington street, Bradford, arrested by Sheriff Robinson Saturday afternoon about 5:30 on charge of having in his possession moonshine liquor, escaped from that officer as he was being taken into the police station. The sheriff arrested Evans in connection with the case against Fred Dollivar who was arrested a short time ago on a similar charge. It seems that Dollivar who is in the county jail, accused Evans of making the liquor that he was transporting the night of his arrest. Sheriff Robinson picked Evans up on Hilton street and took him in his car to the local police station where he made his escape when he stepped out of the car. The sheriff and several police officers gave chase which led them up Bishop to Amm, down Amm and out Kennedy streets, through Miller's lumber yard, into the cemetery and across the creek where the officers lost track of him. As yet they have been unable to locate him.—Bradford Era.

A Treacherous Undertow

CONFESSIONS OF UNITY RESTORE MAL-CONTENTS TO BOOSTERS' GOOD WILL

"Plans of the good roads association for county highway construction are in risk of being sidetracked in the effort to divert the natural course of the Buffalo to Pittsburgh highway and take it through this county by a roundabout course."—Substance of original Democrat Brainstorm Editorial, for which there never was any foundation.

"Now that the regrettable misunderstanding of motives has been cleared up the Democrat has no doubt that the other towns interested will welcome Bradford's prestige. Indeed the oil metropolis should have been included in the plans anyway. . . . As the Democrat understands it, not even a misunderstanding exists. . . . Any plan connected with the county good roads movement would most emphatically be incomplete without the presence of Bradford—Democrat's Belated Acknowledgement of McKean County Miner's Affirmation of Unity Among Good Roads Boosters.

"There is every reason to believe that there are interests so overly anxious to complete other roads that the primary system would be left in its present uncompleted state, until after that was done, if the solid unity of those affected had not arose against such a plan."—Statement by the Eldred Eagle, chief supporter of Democrat in all things, brainstorms included, made one week after Democrat acknowledged "a regrettable misunderstanding."

The tangle in which the heretofore sowers of disunity now find themselves is apparent. In a desperate effort to have the public forget it, they have side-steped the issue by resorting to petty personalities in the hope of disparaging those who called their hand and forced them to proclaim a united front on the part of the good roads boosters of McKean county—all of them. It was a terrible fall and an awful bump, yet it seems to have jarred a modicum of sense, at least, into their storm-wracked mental equipment. For, despite the manifest camouflage of personalities, they are talking unity now instead of disunity—in fact have walked right into The Miner's camp, where at no time could anything save unity be descried. We welcome them. Although their energies have been misdirected for a season, their former records are a sufficient guarantee for future loyalty to all things progressive. Sit down, boys, make yourselves at home. Sorry we haven't a fatted calf. Now that it's all over, let's shake hands and boost completion of the primary roads for all that is in us. Maybe we can arrange for a picnic, after all.

PLEAS OF GUILTY DRAW JAIL SENTENCES FOR 2 IN CIVIL COURT, MONDAY

There was quite a busy session in Civil court Monday, when four prisoners were arraigned before Judge Bouton for various misdemeanors.

The first arraigned was Frank Bundy of Mt. Jewett, charged with operating an automobile while intoxicated. Following his plea of guilty the court assessed a fine of $25 and sentenced the accused to three months in jail.

Charles D. Ross, of Kane arraigned on a similar charge, pleaded guilty and was given a like fine and sentence.

Frank Miller, aged 17, of Bradford, accused of stealing a watch from the home of George Young on the Bradford road, after Mr. Young had taken him in and fed him, pleaded guilty to the charge, but because of his extreme youth and the fact that the boy had few if any chances in the world, Judge Bouton consigned him to the care of Probation Officer Lindsay, for two years.

The case of Fred Dollivar of Bradford, charged with the illegal transportation of liquor, was postponed until the October term of court, for the reason that Dollivar suffered a stroke of paralysis in jail Saturday morning and his condition was such that he could not make an appearance in court.

SOLDIER BOYS TO START CAMPAIGN FOR MEMORIAL LATTER PART OF MONTH.

American Legion post of McKean county will start the ball rolling for the new Memorial building the latter part of the month and the members say they intend to keep it rolling until the last ballot has been cast on election day. The soldier boys are meeting with encouragement from every part of the county and believe that their proposal will be given a big majority. In the event of success at the polls, Smethport will benefit by another substantial building, as the law prescribes that all memorial edifices to soldiers shall be erected in the county seat.

MASONS SEEK CHARTER FOR NEW TEMPLE CLUB.

C. C. Choate, George W. Mitchell, Harry S. Rubin, Guy H. McCoy, Guy B. Mayo, William F. Specht and J. A. Swanson have filed application with the court of common pleas of McKean county for a charter for an intended corporation to be known as the Temple Club of Smethport, the object of which is to maintain a club for the promotion of social intercourse and the encouragement of innocent amusement. In effect the proposed organization is a club for Masons and will occupy quarters in the new Masonic Temple.

Cheers Rend the Air When Mayor Brasted Turns on the Lights

Vast Throng Attends Smethport's Transformation Into City Beautiful Wednesday Eve; Downtown Blazes a Welcome to Hundreds of Visitors to County Fair.

Council gave the new electric light and power plant a thorough going over last Monday night, approved it in every detail, praised the public service department for its efficiency in all things pertaining to the improvement, whereupon it ordered payment of $7,000 on the trunk line from Ridgway to Smethport and $2,000 covering incidentals having to do with material and connections in Smethport. Following this Borough Manager Backus made the pleasing announcement that the trunk line will cost something like $1,000 less than the amount first submitted.

With Main street lamps all ready to receive the current, a large crowd assembled on the court house grounds Wednesday night when Mayor Brasted, following a happy speech of acceptance on the part of the people, pushed the button that transformed Main street from an illy-lighted thoroughfare into a strictly modern "white way." The mayor's action was followed by rounds of applause from the large assemblage, every individual member of which expressed both surprise and delight over Smethport's enhanced appearance. And catching the spirit of the occasion, the famous Smethport band, let loose with a real rollicking air that brought the big crowd to its feet with another burst of applause. In fact, enthusiasm was the order of the night, the attitude of the people lending emphasis to the universal appreciation of the public service department's efforts toward modern improvements.

Scores of visitors here for the Fair witnessed the transformation of Smethport from a dimly-lighted town to one with modern lighting facilities and congratulated our citizens upon their progress. It surely proved a red letter night for McKean's capital.

Borough Manager Backus Wednesday announced that lamps in the side streets would be put in commission just as soon as connections on what is known as the "big loop" are completed. There are forty families and concerns in the loop demanding immediate service, he said, and when this domand is met, which will prove a matter of a few days only, attention will be given the side streets. The big loop embraces the territory extending from the power house in Water street to Nelson street; from Nelson to King from King to a point opposite the Mayo residence, thence to Water street and back to the power house.

The hundreds of visitors to the Fair this week not only express approval of Smethport's improvement from an electrical standpoint, but were loud in their praise of the fine paving jobs done in Mechanic and West Main streets. "Smethport surely has awakened," was the verdict of the visitors and there is no doubt that they left with a better impression of McKean's capital city than ever before. The new improvements surely have advertised the old town, for of a truth Smethport has taken a long step on the path of progress that not only leads to but surely will invite greater and better things.

COUNTY FAIR EXHIBITS PLEASE LARGE THRONG, WEDNESDAY ATTRACTIONS PROVE DELIGHT

It's a big Fair, replete with features of every description and deserving of recordbreaking crowds Thursday and Friday.

Although the attendance was about the average, Wednesday, everybody expressed themselves as highly pleased with the exhibits, the great free attractions, the incomparable Midway and some of the best racing events ever seen on the local track.

Chief among the displays in the exposition building are: The culinary exhibit, revealing some of the finest specimens of preserved fruits and vegetables ever seen anywhere; the beautiful display of flowers, revealing manifold varieties of home-grown beauties, arranged with a view to perfection in blending; the fruit display, composed of home-grown apples for the most part, demonstrating that it is within McKean county's power to take rank as an apple producing center; the vegetable display of corn, tomatoes, potatoes, pumpkins, beans—in fact everything in the vegetable line; and last, but by no means least, the display of housewives' handiwork in the form of quilts, comforts, plain and fancy needlework of every description and kind, a display, by the way, that is well worth going miles to see.

The cattle exhibit, consisting for the most part of Ayrshire stock, is a fine one, although much too limited. The poultry exhibit, however, is all that could be desired, a number of the chickens ducks and geese being of such a high order as to be considered prize competitors anywhere.

Wednesday afternoon's racing program, consisting of trotting and running events, drew a large crowd to the grandstand and all around the track, while the free attractions, consisting of the Flying Dordens and the Sero Trio even proved far better than advertised.

Down in the big Midway, where the crowd assembled and reassembled between races and music by the Smethport band, which truth to tell, fairly outdone its well known record for excellent music, everything was lively and of good cheer. The noise of the ballyhoo men, the whirr of the merry-go-round, the airplane flyer and Ferris wheel, all made for a real big event indeed—one of the biggest in the history of the Fair association.

One of the most delightful features for grandstand patrons, however, was the singing of Mrs. Irma Cather, who, with band accompaniment rendered several popular selections, each one of which caught the vast throng and compelled an encore.

Old-time Fair visitors declare it to be one of the best, if not thebest expositions ever put on the local grounds. For that reason the Fair management is preparing for a record-breaking crowd Thursday.

CHILD FRACTURED LEG.

Little Mary Edith Southwick, aged 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enos Southwick, suffered a double fracture of one of her legs, Saturday, when she fell from the loft of Martin Carlson's barn, where, with a number of other little tots, she was engaged in play. While the little one is doing quite well, she will be confined to her home for several weeks.

The McKean County Miner, the official newspaper of McKean county, leads in news, circulation and advertising.

COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION OF MILK PRODUCERS NAMES SCHEDULE FOR SEPTEMBER.

The producers' schedule of milk prices, which the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, Inc. is asking the dealers to pay for milk in September, was decided upon by the board of directors after hours of exhaustive study and careful deliberation at its monthly meeting in Utica on August 23-24.

The prices as recommended, are as follows:

Class 1. Milk sold in fluid form, $2.90 per 100 pounds.

Class 2. Milk sold for use chiefly in the making of cream and ice cream, $2.00.

Class 3-A. Milk sold for the manufacture of canned milk 55 cents per 100 pounds over the price to be determined for milk for butter in September.

Class 3-B. Milk for the manufacture of hard cheese 40c per 100 pounds over the price to be determined for milk for butter in September.

Class 4. Milk for butter and cheese to be determined in the usual manner by the average wholesale prices of these products in the New York City market during September.

The price asked for Class 1, milk is 21 cents per 100 pounds more than the present price. It is exactly the same price the dealers paid the association in September 1921 during which month they charged consumers 15 cents a quart. The retail price for Grade B. milk in New York City, now is 15 cents a quart, the dealers paying $2.69 for fluid milk.

The increase in this price will be highly satisfactory to dairymen, as it represents a figure more closely related to costs of production than has prevailed in many months. It is a price which is justified by economic conditions now prevailing.

Class 2 price will remain the same as in August.

Class 3-A price is an increase of 15 cents and Class 3-B is an increase of 10 cents per 100 pounds over the August price.

Baird, assistant cashier of the defunct bank of Conneautville with appropriating to his own use funds of the institution, were returned by the Crawford county grand jury. TRAIN JUMPS OFF TRACK, RUNS OVER TIES, THEN TAKES THE RAILS AGAIN.

A remarkable and miraculous escape from being wrecked seems to have befallen the northbound B. R. & P. flyer Wednesday afternoon at a point about three miles south of Johnsonburg, when the whole train virtually left the rails and jumped back on again. The circumstances are vouched for by traveling men and passengers on the train, and by inspection of the track after the train passed over.

It is not believed there was any secret attempt made to wreck the train. The bad spot in the track seems to have resulted from what is known as a sun kink, which is caused by abnormally hot weather the afternoon of this occurrence.

The cars left the rail, bumped along the ties, sheared off the tie-plate bolts, and jumped back on the rails again, all of which is corroborated by an inspection of the track.

The train was delayed about half an hour, presumably while the train men and passengers drew a long breath after their narrow escape from a serious wreck. Leaving proper protection behind, the train proceeded as though nothing had happened, and a wreck train was soon on the job to repair the damage. The B. R. P. tracks are known to be in better than average condition, fully stone ballasted, and the occurrence of Wednesday afternoon is not due to neglect in upkeep. Sunkinks are known to railroad men, but fortunately they do not occur often.—Johnsonburg Press.

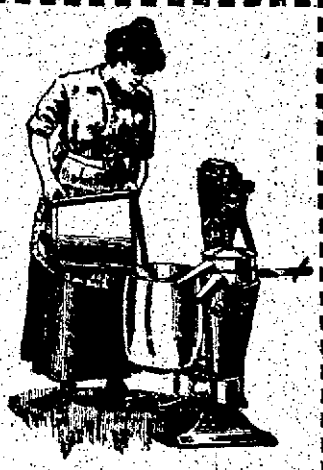
More Cream Money

More cream means more money. There's cream slipping away every day in your dairy. Thousands of scientific tests have proven beyond question that 95 per cent of all hand driven separators are turned below speed a great part of the time. Every member of the family turns the separator at a different speed. If the speed is allowed to slacken, even for a moment, your separator will lose a lot of cream.



SHARPLES
Famous Suction-Feed
"Skims clean at any Speed"
SEPARATOR

The bowl draws in just enough milk to insure clean skimming. You can turn fast and get through quickly because the capacity increases with the speed. Your wife or daughter may turn slower—according to their strength. The Suction-feed will always skim clean and deliver smooth cream of even thickness—not thick today and thin tomorrow.

There are no dirks to wash—only one piece in the bowl, simple as a napkin ring. The supply can is only knee-high. You can empty heavy pails and cans of milk without straining back or arms. Come in and see it for yourself.

EXERTING MORE PRESSURE

Henry Ford's threat to close his factories September 16, may have been taken too literally, and much that has been said about his throwing out of work thousands of heads of families may have been misplaced criticism. What is probably in the automobile manufacturer's mind is adding his own pressure toward bringing about an end to the coal miners' strike and the profiteering by operators.

What Henry Ford wants is what everyone else hopes to see—the resumption of coal mining in all parts of the country and a rapid and satisfactory distribution of fuel. The unfortunate feature of the whole situation is that the average person is helpless. Too much of the handling is, by necessity, left to those who have personal interests at stake and who therefore do not take the necessary steps toward ending the disagreement.

The situation has been made clear that the Detroit manufacturer can get fuel but he does not propose to be mulcted by profiteers in coal. It has been expected that Detroit industries will get some fuel before September 16, at reasonable prices. But at that it is not improper for Mr. Ford to let his closing announcement stand until he sees the fuel and tire bills. Meantime, also, his move has resulted in orders to the mills which supply him with materials to hold up shipments to his plants. Thus there will be curtailed activities in the districts where there are steel plants, sheet mills and manufactories of forgings for Ford cars. In short order these people will add protests that have remained unuttered while business went along and the coal situation remained merely a scare. It is this kind of pressure which will in time bring about an end to the coal tie-up.

ANALYZING WOMEN MAYORS.

Mildred Adams writes in "The American City" of 15 women mayors in the United States. The towns over which they preside range in size from Rochester, Ohio, with a population of 146, to St. Peters, Minnesota, where the population is 4,335. The 15 women mayors are well distributed over the country. Some of these women where elected because they voluntarily went into politics and tried for office. Others were drafted. Mrs. A. K. Gault of St. Peters was appointed by a council of men after the man elected mayor refused to qualify. Mrs. Abby Howe Forest, mayor of Thayer, Kansas, and five other women were nominated as candidates for city offices and elected over two other tickets.

Mrs. Green Miller, mayor of Jackson, Wyoming, has a council of five women helping her. Dr. Amy Kaukonen, mayor of Fairport, Ohio, who is 23 years of age, is a physician. She has authority to appoint a chief of police, a board of health and a chemist. She took all these powers unto herself. In her capacity as chief of police she arrests "bootleggers," as the board of health she considers the menace of "bootleg" liquor to the health of the community, and as town chemist she analyses the stuff. Finding it bad, as a chemist she then warns against it as the board of health.

Miss Adams has found, in investigating the work of the women mayors, that they think in terms of municipal housekeeping. Men think of municipal problems in terms of engineering, she says; but the women officials consider the town merely an enlarged family to be educated, clothed, fed and kept orderly and in good health.

If some of the hot air that is being wasted on the strike situation could be conserved it would come in handy next winter.

CONSIDER THE PRODUCER.

Opponents of the pending tariff bill are forever telling how much its passage will add to the costs of living. The reader of such arguments should remember that for every debit estimate of that kind there is a credit estimate of a far higher figure. Protection to American industry means constant employment at good wages for American workmen. It means that our citizens will have dollars in their pockets with which to buy the things that their comfort demands. It is of no use to keep the tariff at a low point if it thereby admits a flood of cheap foreign goods, closes American factories, and denies to American workmen the wherewithal to buy the necessities of life. Moreover, experience under the Democratic tariff law prior to the outbreak of the war, proved that the lower tariff did not reduce the cost of living. It merely enhanced the profits of the importers and made more business for foreign producers.

REAPING THE WHIRLWIND.

Those Democrats who would criticise the course of the administration in the strike emergency, should pause and ponder the policies of Mr. Wilson in a somewhat similar situation. The threatened rail strike was avoided—by agreeing to every one of the employes' demands, and asking Congress to enact legislation written by them in their own interest. Principle was discarded and everything gave way to expediency. The Republicans are now reaping the harvest of trouble that the Democrats sowed. Both the coal and the rail strikes were brought on because operators of the mines and the roads refused to continue in effect agreements that had been made by the Wilson administration as temporary expedients.

COX AT IT AGAIN.

Governor Cox says that American participation in affairs of Europe is essential to the best interests of doubtless would be in the best interests of Europe, but there never has been a time since the war when it would be greater folly for America to be entangled with Europe than the present. Mr. Cox himself says that Austria can not last much longer, and that both France and Germany are in desperate straits. Apparently a European disaster is imminent, and Americans may thank the good judgment of Republican legislators that the United States is not so tied up as to be dragged down with it.

HOME PAPER DIFFERENT.

Not many country weeklies these days make any pretense of giving a complete or even a partial story of the world's news. There are other publications which can do this better. But there is no other publication, no matter how hard it may try, which can give the home news so satisfactorily as the country weekly. When the big city paper tries it, it may have most of the facts and figures, but it can't present them in the intimate, personal way of the home editor who really knows the folks about whom he writes.

The great reductions in the military forces and military expenses of the United States demonstrate the sincerity of this administration in its promise to reduce government expenditures and make possible a reduction in taxes. The reduction in expenses must come first, of course, and the Republicans have paved the way for future reductions of taxes even greater than the reductions already made by the Republican congress.

Mathilde and Mother McCormick are about to wed Swiss lovers, Harold McCormick is honeymooning with a Polish singer, and now they say Muriel McCormick is to appear in four movies for a cool million, all of which may mean that the McCormicks are determined to hold on to first-page space for some time.

A Washington paper says the appearance of Bryan on the stump this year "is regarded at the capitol as highly significant." And so it is. It is significient of the fact that the Democratic hopes are so low that the members of that party will grab a millstone to float themselves.

What has become of the old-fashioned Smethport man or woman who used to brag about the tall sunflower in his or her back yard about this time of year?

It is said that "travel broadens a man." Some Smethport men have found out that it is at least calculated to break them.

There are some men who reveal faith in their ability to settle both the coal problem and the rail strike, but they would accomplish much more if they would oil up the old family lawn mower and get up a good sweat.

New Marmon Phaeton
surprises all

THE reception given the new 7-passenger Marmon Phaeton has been remarkable. A constant stream of people have been in to view it. And all are of one opinion: "It exceeds all expectations."

It is difficult for most people to imagine how such a beautiful and distinguished car as the Marmon could be improved. Until one actually sees the new Phaeton, it is difficult to imagine the many refinements. It establishes the coming vogue.

True, there are no glaring mechanical changes, no departures from proven superiorities. The Marmon is too fine a car to change radically.

The first glance, however, reveals the coming mode in appearance. The eye takes in lower lines. One is conscious of added grace in body moulding. Yet this added beauty is without sacrificing the Marmon's unusual passenger comfort. Then the eye takes in the new Panorama top, and observes that this is a new style all-year car, entirely different, one that brings airy openness in summer and snug sedan coziness in winter—yet always with unobstructed vision. Winter-panels cost but little extra.

Throughout, the Phaeton brings a series of surprises. In appearance, in comfort, in performance, this is the greatest Marmon of a line of successes.

Until you've seen this Marmon Phaeton, you can't appreciate the coming vogue. We invite you to come in and see it.

STANDARD ELECTRIC CO MEETS BUSINESS RUSH WITH FORCE OF EXPERTS.

Smethport business institutions and home owners are strong for electricity for light, fuel and power. Ever since the people came to realize that service could be had for the asking, local electricians have fairly been inundated with applications for wiring and preparing homes and business houses for the many uses to which the subtle fluid is subjected. One of the busiest institutions in Smethport at the present time is that of the Standard Electric Co., 317 Main street, D. L. McCauley manager. Fairly besieged with orders from a number of the largest institutions in the city to the smallest homes, Manager McCauley has added to his force of expert workmen from day to day, until now he has one of the laggest and best line-ups of electrical mechanics to be found anywhere. During the past week or ten days the Standard company has equipped the following business houses and residences with electrical appliances and has received orders for almost double that number:

The Hamlin Bank, Fred Hungiville residence, W. H. Gallup office, John Eberspacher's billiard hall, Ralph Burdick's residence, The Miner printing plant, together with some twelve or more small residences in different parts of town. Yesterday the Standard Co. received the contract for equipping the residences of S. A. Burdick and the residence of Frank Fay. Despite this rush of business, however, the Standard Co. is prepared to care for all work promptly. An expert electrical engineer himself, Manager McCauley has surrounded himself with a force of men who know the game and take pride in the execution of their work. adv.

Lincoln Said:
"We cannot escape history"
The history of the successful man invariably proves that he has been systematic in "money matters." He is a man who not only has a Savings account with a strong bank, but whose thrift extends still farther—he has a Checking
The man with the checking account eliminates waste, prevents mistakes and has a record of expenditures, as well as an indisputable receipt for every bill he pays.
We invite both classes of accounts and assure helpful, friendly advice in your financial affairs.

"I knew him when he was a boy"

What one is there of us that has not felt the glow of satisfaction over the outstanding success of a life-long friend! Often a surprise—seemingly "all of a sudden." Yet neither surprising nor sudden, when you stop to think back over each step of his progress.

THE United States Rubber Company—makers of U. S. Royal Cords—were first to conceive, make and announce the balanced tire. A tire in which there is such complete unity of action in tread and carcass that neither will give way before the other.

First to conceive, make and announce a complete line of tires—a tire for every need of price and use under one standard of quality.

First to tell the public about the good and bad in tire-retailing. (You remember the phrase "Go to a legitimate dealer and get a legitimate tire.")

First also to arouse industrial and trade minds to the need of a new kind of tire competition. (Competition for better and better values. Greater and greater public confidence.)

THESE high spots along the U. S. road to leadership indicate the intent—the will to win by the quality route in a price market.

Now that so many car-owners have given their verdict for quality tires in general, and U. S. Tires in particular—a number of dealers and car-owners whose vision has been clouded by "discounts," "sales" and what not, are beginning to remember that they "knew him when he was a boy."

CREDIT TO AMERICAN RULE

Affairs of Colony of Pago Pago, in the South Seas, Declared Admirably Managed.

According to Randolph Bedford, in a recent number of Our World, Pago Pago is "the happiest community on earth."

This island in the Samoan group is the southernmost outpost of American government. Little has been said about this colony of ours; probably there are a great many Americans who do not even know that we have it. But in our administration of its affairs we have demonstrated, according to Mr. Bedford, who is an Australian globe trotter and journalist, that we govern our colonies better than we govern ourselves.

The total of the annual taxes levied on the natives is just $7. It is with mingled feelings that one reads of what Uncle Sam can accomplish for $7 a year if he has to. The Samoan, according to Mr. Bedford, gets for this expenditure, "protection, work, cleanliness, electric light, good water supply, cement roads and education." When Spanish influenza was raging through the islands of the South seas, taking a great toll among the natives, it passed Pago by. There was not a single case throughout the entire epidemic. "Pago is a long march ahead of the average western Pacific settlement, administered by the white man. The native has succeeded at no personal cost to the efficiency of the American engineer; to the smooth roads that bear his bicycle; aye, and to the picture show and ice cream of California."

MOVED WALL WITHOUT INJURY

Engineering Experts Proved It No Trick at All to Lengthen Big Buffalo Church.

In olden days, when the medieval cathedral builders wished to lengthen one of their great churches (and this happened very frequently), there was nothing for it but to pull down the western wall with its two towers, if it possessed any, or the eastern face, and lengthen the structure to the desired extent.

Today, however, thanks to the highly developed art of "house moving," we can lengthen a church without any preliminary destruction of its principal front. As witness of this, the front of the Central Presbyterian church, Buffalo, was recently moved 30 feet, entire, to permit a lengthening of the auditorium to that extent. The front of the building is 78 feet wide over the lateral buttresses, 60 feet high and 8 feet wide at the thickest parts. The weight of the wall, as moved, is 1,000 tons.

The preliminary operations consisted of removing the front, preparing the new foundations, 30 feet to the eastward, and making a clean cut through the roof and through the side walls, where they abutted against the church front. While this was being done the front wall was jacked up upon rollers. The work of moving the 1,000-ton mass was done by means of screw-jacks, operated by 15 men, and the wall completed its journey of 30 feet without injury in 16 hours.—Scientific American.

Enforce Federal Bird Law.

Among the convictions obtained by the United States Department of Agriculture during May for violation of the Migratory-Bird Treaty act were one in Illinois, involving the killing of a gull, fine $25 and costs; one in Virginia, involving the sale of a heron, fine $25; two in Kentucky, involving the hunting of ducks from a motor boat, fine $25 each and costs; two in Florida, involving the possession of ducks in close season, $25 each; two in Oregon involving the hunting of ducks after sunset, fine $25 each; one in Oregon, involving the killing of a band-tailed pigeon, fine $25; two in Arkansas, involving the sale of ducks, $20 each; one in Florida, involving the killing of ducks in close season, fine $50; one in Virginia, involving the sale of ducks, fine $100; and one in Louisiana, involving the sale of ducks, fine $100.

Effect of Daylight on Plants.

Investigation of length of daylight on plant life conducted by the United States Bureau of Plant Industry indicates the importance of this factor in its development. Formation of bulbs is induced by excessively long days, while formation of tubers commonly results from excessively short days. This deposition of carbohydrate in relatively condensed or dehydrated form as a result of an unfavorable light period indicates marked loss of power to utilize the products of photosynthesis in elongating the stem or in developing flower and fruit, a condition well exemplified in the stemless or leaf-rosette form of foliage development. The opposite change toward the optimal day-length to stem elongation may precede typical annual plants from impending death and effect more or less complete evanescence.

How She Did It.

Two housewives were exchanging confidences as to their help.

"What I can't see," exclaimed the first, "is how you manage to get so much work out of Ruth. I can't do it. She puts your work done much quicker than mine, and does it just as well or better, too."

"Well," exclaimed the second housewife, "I just put fuzzy pieces on our electric player piano all the time she is working. Simple, isn't it?"

The streets through Turtle Point have been nothing but a cloud of dust for the past few days.

John Murphy and family visited at Mr. Lundergan's of Rock Run, Sunday evening.

Mr. McNeal has gone back to tool dressing again.

Dora Taylor passed through Turtle Point Monday last.

If there were a sign board at the Larabee crossing telling strangers which way to go to get to Smethport it would save them lots of trouble and toil, as there have been lots of autoists stopping at Turtle Point this summer inquiring the way to Smethport.

There was a chicken meeting held at the home of Mrs. T. F. Hughes last Friday for the purpose of culling her flock of chickens. Quite a number of ladies attended the meeting. Mr. Carman was one of the gentlemen who did the culling.

Two truck loads of peaches passed through town last week.

The new school building will be ready for school Monday next.

PROMISING YOUNG MAN DROWNED WHILE BATHING NEAR BRADFORD, SUNDAY.

Frank L. Walter, 25, of Bradford, world war veteran, and prominent in church and social organizations, was drowned in Park Lake swimming pool Sunday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. Strenuous efforts to rescue him on the part of a large number of bathers proved unsuccessful. Bradford police recovered the body some 15 minutes later.

Walter, in company with Alfred Smith, a friend, repaired to the swimming pool and engaged in diving, first from a board used by children and later from a board some five feet above the surface of the water. Smith took the first plunge and was swimming about when Walter leaped, landing heavily on his stomach. As Walter came to the surface, Smith observed that something was wrong and went to his assistance. Walter struggled so desperately that ere Smith could tow him to shallow water he was forced to relinquish his hold from sheer exhaustion.

It is the opinion that when Walter struck flat upon the water the force of the blow caused a temporary paralysis of the heart which rendered him incapable of voluntary effort, and that the shock was largely responsible for his death.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Walter of Bradford; three sisters, Mrs. George Ward of Harrisburg Run; Mrs. Thomas Fox of Derrick City, Mrs. James Brown of Red Rock and Mrs. Wayne Hamilton of Bradford; two brothers, Charles Walter of Muskogee, Okla. and John W. Walter of Garlock, Pa.

The little one was brought to the office of Doctor Chadwick where her injuries were alliviated.

The child was on the sidewalk at the time, and the accident followed when the Haskins machine collided with an auto standing in front of the Doty boarding house. In an effort to right his car, Mr. Haskins evidently lost control, with the result of the machine running onto the sidewalk and striking the child.
